

We have just what your Art Teacher wants You to get Camelhair watercolor brushes White and manila watercolor paper Jap rice paper

Drawing pencils Spencerian pen points No. 1

And for other School Work---

Journal and ledger paper Music note books
Linen tablets, ruled and unruled Composition and note books Students' loose-leaf notebooks Pencils, rulers, crayons, sharpeners, —everything the student needs.
Pound correspondence paper, 65c Correspondence cards and Highland Linen box paper, $1.25 to $3.75.

BREEN-LEWIS DRUG CO.
FREE DELIVERY PHONE NO. 58

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.
Orange Crush in sterilized bottles.
—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

TONIGHT — FRIDAY

Anita Stewart

in

"The Fighting

Shepherdess"

The big, open range, desperate, hard riding, merciless cattlemen who recognize no sex in their efforts to drive Kate and her flocks from their domain. They seek her life, her good name and bar her way to love—but she fights alone, and wins her battle with man's weapons, but not in man's way.

also

The first of Aesop's Fables
"Mice in Council"

Big show at regular prices, 15c, 25c, 35c.

SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Carter

De Haven

in

"The Girl in the Taxi"

A good comedy-drama

Also

2-REEL CHARLIE CHAPLIN

"The Rink"

Mat. 3 p. m. 10c, 25c, 35c.

Night: 15c, 25c, 35c.

SUNDAY

James Oliver Curwood's

"The Golden Snare"

A big feature of the snow country with real men and women. An all-star cast headed by Lewis Stone.

Added Attraction

Buster Keaton

in

"One Week"

A 2-Reel Comedy.

Mat. 3 p. m. 10c, 25c, 35c.

Night: Lower Floor Reserved, 50c; Balcony 35c; Children 25c.

T. A. RIORDAN, President. M. J. RIORDAN, Secretary.
L. B. KOCH, Vice-Pres., Manager.

ARIZONA LUMBER AND TIMBER COMPANY

(Established, 1881)

Manufacturers of

NATIVE PINE LUMBER, PROPS, STILLS,

Piling, Ties, Lagging, Boxes, Lath, Shingles, Sash and Doors.

FLAGSTAFF ARIZONA

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

George Casner was in the first of the week from his ranch out Harris Park way.

Harlow Yaeger was up yesterday from his Canyon Diablo ranch and sheep range.

G. N. Baty, pioneer painting contractor; 822 Railroad avenue. Phone 249-J.—Advertisement.

J. W. Robinson returned this week from Winslow, where he had been working for some time.

A. J. Fenstermaker brought a load of apples and peaches up from his Sedona ranch on Wednesday.

Tanlac, the remarkable medicine that everybody is talking about, is sold by Breen-Lewis Drug Co.

You are advised to buy tickets for the N. A. N. S.'s complete lyceum course. Ask any student for them.

This week has found more tourists than usual passing through and every day is bringing them in by hundreds.

Joe Higginbotham, timekeeper and shipping clerk for the Flagstaff Lumber Co., left Wednesday for Los Angeles on vacation.

We not only say we can put your tires back on the road—we guarantee it. Flagstaff Vulcanizing Shop. Phone 68.—Advertisement.

Tickets for the five lyceum attractions to be held at N. A. N. S. this season will go on sale Saturday. A student will see you.

The little Misses Barbara Rees and "Sister" Heisser, both of whom were very sick for a few days, are now practically well again.

Fred J. Lusk, manufacturer of Flavo flour, left Wednesday for Los Angeles, on business, planning to be home again next Monday.

George Fleming came up the first of the week and on Tuesday moved his wife and kiddies to Prescott, where they will live this winter.

Jim Fry has bought a house and lots on North San Francisco street hill from Dr. C. F. Portz and will move his family there soon.

Lee Carron, proprietor of the Carron Motor and Implement Co., left Wednesday night for Phoenix, to be gone a day or so on business.

Sheriff Billy Campbell left yesterday for Florence, taking Severino Chavira, sentenced to the penitentiary Wednesday by Judge J. E. Jones.

Tanlac is a splendid tonic and system purifier, now selling at the rate of almost Ten Million bottles a year.
Breen-Lewis Drug Co.—Advertisement.

C. M. Morrow left Wednesday for Glendale to remain for the winter. He went down early this fall in order to get well located before the fine winter climate arrived.

J. C. Penney company have two interesting advertisements in this issue of The Sun which show you how you can save money on things you have got to have.—Advertisement.

Miss Margaret Walsh returned last Monday from Los Angeles where she had been spending her vacation, to take up her work in charge of the musical department at the Normal.

Harry Richwine is back at his old line, selling hardware, something Harry knows 'most all there is to be known about, and is located with the hardware department at Babbitt's.

Milo Meecham and John Polis got back last week from the coast, where they had been for two weeks on vacation, most of which Milo spent in Los Angeles, while John visited San Francisco.

Need glasses? See Dr. Schell of Tucson, on his regular visit at the Commercial hotel on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 10 and 11. Two days only. Special attention to children's eyes. 9-30-2t.

The county board of supervisors held their regular monthly meeting at the courthouse on Monday, all of the members—Fred Garing, chairman, and W. H. Campbell, of Flagstaff, and Wm. C. Rittenhouse, of Williams, being present.

Claude C. Black, of Sedona, was in town the last of last week, on business and for a short visit with his brother, Chet and George Jr. He had been helping round up the bunch of a thousand or so steers which the stockgrowers down that way drove in last week to ship.

"Rimby Jim" Giddings came in the first of the week from his headquarters ranch near the Little Colorado and announces with considerable satisfaction that range and water was never better in his country. Cattle are getting fat and will be in fine shape to go through the winter.

J. W. Etter, of Dead Man's Flat, was in town the first of the week trying to get help to cut his ensilage corn; but found none of those who are hunting jobs willing to work.

"Rimby Jim" Giddings told him to hire Indians, explaining that he uses them a great deal herding cattle and finds that when he puts the average Indian on a horse "he will fox-trot it farther in a day than I could ship the average white man by train in the same time." Etter has a couple of slios on his ranch and will build another.

Ralph Davis spent Tuesday in Williams.
Coming—"Lavender and Old Lace," at Orpheum.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Hires Root Beer in sterilized bottles.—
Advertisement.

Students of the N. A. N. S. will bring your lyceum course tickets, Saturday.

Mrs. Paulita Branch left last Wednesday for a month's visit with relatives in New Mexico.

Ever see an operation? We're cutting up a tire now. Flagstaff Vulcanizing
Shop.—Advertisement.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Zook left in their car the first of the week for California, to attend M. E. conference.

Little Francis, son of the late Jack Costigan, very ill for several days, was reported a little better yesterday.

Jack LeBaron came in yesterday from his sheep range. He will begin drifting his bands south week after next.

Always fresh and pure. You'll like our home-made candy. Made fresh daily. Bailey's Candy Kitchen.—Advertisement.

That battery dance at the armory again tomorrow (Saturday) night, and you are invited to come and bring your lady-love.

Nie Gourassas, of the White House restaurant, and Walter Stevenson left Saturday in the latter's car for a brief visit in Phoenix.

"Arizona" Edwards was in yesterday from the Barney Pasture country, where he is guiding a bunch of hunters.
He says they got a bear.

Four artist musicians, the Paulo Gruppe company, offer the lyceum course's first program, Tuesday, October 11. Buy your tickets Saturday.

C. B. Mott, formerly of The Sun staff, arrived here the last of last week from Chicago to spend his vacation at the home of his sister, Mrs.
C. L. Fleck.

Fred Russell was in town Tuesday to buy a spud digger. Says he hunted three straight days and didn't get sight of a buck, though last year eight of them fed from hay he had just cut.

James Bailey, a former Texas ranger, an Arizona ranger and a forest ranger, was in from his prosperous cattle ranch on Beaver Creek, Saturday, bringing in a bunch of cattle for shipment.

Al K. Hawkins, the young cattleman who has lived around the Williams country so long that he has commenced to get old, was in Flagstaff the latter part of the week catching up with old time friends.

Clarence Durham is expected here tomorrow on vacation and to hunt deer with his dad, Walter W. Durham.
Mrs. Clarence and the baby are visiting her parents in Winslow and will come up to stay while her husband is here.

Gavino Tafuya returned the latter part of last week from Albuquerque, where he had been called on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. David Garcia, who died the previous Sunday after a short illness. The funeral was held Monday.

While Dr. L. B. McMullen, president of the Normal school, was in the east, last week, he made a hurried visit to Arcadia, Ind., the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary C. McMullen, and brought her back to Flagstaff with him for an extended visit—her first to Arizona.
They arrived Friday noon.

Fred Reno, foreman of the Saginaw logging camps north of Bellemont, was in Flagstaff, Monday. He says he has been working a small gang for some time building and getting ready for logging operations this fall, with the expectation that the sawmill will open up for business soon at Williams.

C. R. Parker has packed up his carpenter tools and moved his family back to their ranch in Government Prairie, which Jack Shelton had been working on shares this year in addition to running his own ranch. Parker helped in the harvesting, which they finished just before the equinoctial rains began.

Arrested for alleged stealing of a watch and shirt from Neils Johnson and a pair of shoes from another man, when he appeared before Magistrate S. B. Gilliland and said his name was Shoemaker, the judge asked him what part of Ohio he hailed from. "Vinton county," was the answer. He was put at work cleaning up the city jail.

Dr. Eric S. Flett's mother, Mrs.
Eric C. Flett, of Los Angeles, will arrive here tonight for a few days' visit with the doctor. She has been spending the summer at the home of her mother, in Buffalo, N. Y. When she leaves for home next week, Dr. Flett will also leave, in his car, for a vacation of a month or so in Los Angeles.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Coming—"Lavender and Old Lace,"
at Orpheum.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Hires Root Beer in sterilized bottles.—
Advertisement.

Students of the N. A. N. S. will bring your lyceum course tickets, Saturday.

Mrs. Paulita Branch left last Wednesday
for a month's visit with relatives
in New Mexico.

Ever see an operation? We're cutting
up a tire now. Flagstaff Vulcanizing
Shop.—Advertisement.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Zook left in
their car the first of the week for California, to attend M. E. conference.

Little Francis, son of the late Jack
Costigan, very ill for several days,
was reported a little better yesterday.

Jack LeBaron came in yesterday
from his sheep range. He will begin drifting his bands south week after
next.

Always fresh and pure. You'll like our home-made candy. Made fresh daily. Bailey's Candy Kitchen.—Advertisement.

That battery dance at the armory
again tomorrow (Saturday) night,
and you are invited to come and bring
your lady-love.

Nie Gourassas, of the White House
restaurant, and Walter Stevenson left Saturday in the latter's car for a brief
visit in Phoenix.

"Arizona" Edwards was in yesterday
from the Barney Pasture country,
where he is guiding a bunch of hunters.
He says they got a bear.

Four artist musicians, the Paulo
Gruppe company, offer the lyceum
course's first program, Tuesday, October 11. Buy your tickets Saturday.

C. B. Mott, formerly of The Sun
staff, arrived here the last of last week from Chicago to spend his vacation
at the home of his sister, Mrs.
C. L. Fleck.

Fred Russell was in town Tuesday
to buy a spud digger. Says he hunted three straight days and didn't get
sight of a buck, though last year eight
of them fed from hay he had just cut.

James Bailey, a former Texas ranger,
an Arizona ranger and a forest
ranger, was in from his prosperous
cattle ranch on Beaver Creek, Saturday, bringing in a bunch of cattle for shipment.

Al K. Hawkins, the young cattleman
who has lived around the Williams
country so long that he has commenced
to get old, was in Flagstaff
the latter part of the week catching
up with old time friends.

Clarence Durham is expected here
tomorrow on vacation and to hunt deer
with his dad, Walter W. Durham.
Mrs. Clarence and the baby are visiting her parents in Winslow and will come up to stay while her husband is
here.

Gavino Tafuya returned the latter part of last week from Albuquerque,
where he had been called on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. David Garcia, who died the previous Sunday after a short illness. The funeral was held Monday.

While Dr. L. B. McMullen, president
of the Normal school, was in the east,
last week, he made a hurried visit to Arcadia, Ind., the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary C. McMullen, and brought
her back to Flagstaff with him for an extended visit—her first to Arizona.
They arrived Friday noon.

Fred Reno, foreman of the Saginaw
logging camps north of Bellemont, was in Flagstaff, Monday. He says he has been working a small gang for some time building and getting ready for logging operations this fall, with
the expectation that the sawmill will
open up for business soon at Williams.

C. R. Parker has packed up his carpenter tools and moved his family back to their ranch in Government Prairie, which Jack Shelton had been working on shares this year in addition to running his own ranch. Parker helped in the harvesting, which they finished just before the equinoctial
rains began.

Arrested for alleged stealing of a watch and shirt from Neils Johnson
and a pair of shoes from another man,
when he appeared before Magistrate
S. B. Gilliland and said his name was Shoemaker, the judge asked him what
part of Ohio he hailed from. "Vinton
county," was the answer. He was put
at work cleaning up the city jail.

Dr. Eric S. Flett's mother, Mrs.
Eric C. Flett, of Los Angeles, will arrive here tonight for a few days' visit
with the doctor. She has been spending
the summer at the home of her mother, in Buffalo, N. Y. When she leaves for home next week, Dr. Flett
will also leave, in his car, for a vacation
of a month or so in Los Angeles.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Coming—"Lavender and Old Lace,"
at Orpheum.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Hires Root Beer in sterilized bottles.—
Advertisement.

Students of the N. A. N. S. will bring your lyceum course tickets, Saturday.

Mrs. Paulita Branch left last Wednesday
for a month's visit with relatives
in New Mexico.

Ever see an operation? We're cutting
up a tire now. Flagstaff Vulcanizing
Shop.—Advertisement.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Zook left in
their car the first of the week for California, to attend M. E. conference.

Little Francis, son of the late Jack
Costigan, very ill for several days,
was reported a little better yesterday.

Jack LeBaron came in yesterday
from his sheep range. He will begin drifting his bands south week after
next.

Always fresh and pure. You'll like our home-made candy. Made fresh daily. Bailey's Candy Kitchen.—Advertisement.

That battery dance at the armory
again tomorrow (Saturday) night,
and you are invited to come and bring
your lady-love.

Nie Gourassas, of the White House
restaurant, and Walter Stevenson left Saturday in the latter's car for a brief
visit in Phoenix.

"Arizona" Edwards was in yesterday
from the Barney Pasture country,
where he is guiding a bunch of hunters.
He says they got a bear.

Four artist musicians, the Paulo
Gruppe company, offer the lyceum
course's first program, Tuesday, October 11. Buy your tickets Saturday.

C. B. Mott, formerly of The Sun
staff, arrived here the last of last week from Chicago to spend his vacation
at the home of his sister, Mrs.
C. L. Fleck.

Fred Russell was in town Tuesday
to buy a spud digger. Says he hunted
three straight days and didn't get
sight of a buck, though last year eight
of them fed from hay he had just cut.

James Bailey, a former Texas ranger,
an Arizona ranger and a forest
ranger, was in from his prosperous
cattle ranch on Beaver Creek, Saturday, bringing in a bunch of cattle for shipment.

Al K. Hawkins, the young cattleman
who has lived around the Williams
country so long that he has commenced
to get old, was in Flagstaff
the latter part of the week catching
up with old time friends.

Clarence Durham is expected here
tomorrow on vacation and to hunt deer
with his dad, Walter W. Durham.
Mrs. Clarence and the baby are visiting her parents in Winslow and will come up to stay while her husband is
here.

Gavino Tafuya returned the latter part of last week from Albuquerque,
where he had been called on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. David Garcia, who died the previous Sunday after a short illness. The funeral was held Monday.

While Dr. L. B. McMullen, president
of the Normal school, was in the east,
last week, he made a hurried visit to Arcadia, Ind., the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary C. McMullen, and brought
her back to Flagstaff with him for an extended visit—her first to Arizona.
They arrived Friday noon.

Fred Reno, foreman of the Saginaw
logging camps north of Bellemont, was in Flagstaff, Monday. He says he has been working a small gang for some time building and getting ready for logging operations this fall, with
the expectation that the sawmill will
open up for business soon at Williams.

C. R. Parker has packed up his carpenter tools and moved his family back to their ranch in Government Prairie, which Jack Shelton had been working on shares this year in addition to running his own ranch. Parker helped in the harvesting, which they finished just before the equinoctial
rains began.

Arrested for alleged stealing of a watch and shirt from Neils Johnson
and a pair of shoes from another man,
when he appeared before Magistrate
S. B. Gilliland and said his name was Shoemaker, the judge asked him what
part of Ohio he hailed from. "Vinton
county," was the answer. He was put
at work cleaning up the city jail.

Dr. Eric S. Flett's mother, Mrs.
Eric C. Flett, of Los Angeles, will arrive here tonight for a few days' visit
with the doctor. She has been spending
the summer at the home of her mother, in Buffalo, N. Y. When she leaves for home next week, Dr. Flett
will also leave, in his car, for a vacation
of a month or so in Los Angeles.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Coming—"Lavender and Old Lace,"
at Orpheum.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Lemon Crush in sterilized bottles.
—Advertisement.

State Senator Charles Larson came up from Williams yesterday afternoon.
—Advertisement.

All our bottles thoroughly sterilized—Sightlight City Bottling Works.
—Advertisement.

Billy Switzer and family spent Sunday at F. H. Patton's ranch, down near the pump house.

A bum repair is an abomination and a sin. We guarantee our work. Flagstaff Vulcanizing Shop.—Advertisement.

Dan Hogan, who is taking care of a big building contract on the reservation, was home a short time this week.

Alfred Prather was in town over the week-end from the tall sticks out around Riordan, where he is helping manufacture lumber.

"Uncle" Jimmy Young, who handles the Santa Fe pumping plant at Bellemont, was in Flagstaff yesterday. He recently returned from a trip to the coast for his health and is feeling much better.

C. C. Lorimer, manager of Montezuma Lodge, came in yesterday to meet one of his partners in the Mormon Lake enterprise, Mr. Winstead, who arrived from Long Beach with some men from that city, here for a few weeks' hunting.

The New York Yankees, pennant winners of the American baseball league, beat the New York Giants, winners in the National league race, 3 to 0 on Wednesday and repeated by the same score yesterday. The world's championship for this year goes to the team winning four out of seven games.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Coming—"Lavender and Old Lace,"
at Orpheum.

Union Taxi Company, phone 75.—
Advertisement.

Hires Root Beer in sterilized bottles.—
Advertisement.

Students of the N. A. N. S. will bring your lyceum course tickets, Saturday.

Mrs. Paulita Branch left last Wednesday
for a month's visit with relatives
in New Mexico.

Ever see an operation? We're cutting
up a tire now. Flagstaff Vulcanizing
Shop.—Advertisement.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Zook left in
their car the first of the week for California, to attend M. E. conference.

Little Francis, son of the late Jack
Costigan, very ill for several days,
was reported a little better yesterday.

Jack LeBaron came in yesterday
from his sheep range. He will begin drifting his bands south week after next.